China 2012 -Program Cost (Does not include tuition)

Program cost is $3,950 and payments are non-refundable.

Payment Schedule

- March 1, 2012: Application and First installment deadline-$2,100
- April 2, 2012-Last installment 1,850

Arrival and Departure Dates

Depart from Atlanta: June 17, 2012 Return to Atlanta: July 15, 2012

(Program cost may change)

Cost includes:

- Housing and most meals
- Airfare and ground transportation.
- Trips to 8 cities
- Cultural and Language lectures
- Excursions & Tour guide
- Visa fees
- Insurance

Fees do not include:

- Tuition for your courses paid to ASU.
- Passport
- Personal purchases and personal excursions.
- And other costs beyond those listed above

The Office of Global Programs

Our mission is to provide students with initiatives, activities and events that will enhance diversity and help develop students' intercultural and global competencies to ensure they realize their full potential and become global citizens who are nationally and internationally marketable.

Global Programs

Albany State University

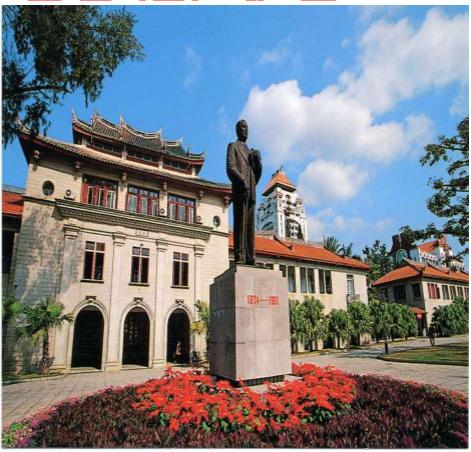

Albany, Georgia Phone (229) 420 1662

Maggie.emily@asurams.edu www.asurams.edu/globalprograms

Program Director: Dr. Nneka Nora Osakwe-Nneka.osakwe@asurams.edu

Summer Study Abroad CHINA

The Office of Global Programs

Albany State University

Summer Study Abroad - China

The host for the four-week program is Xiamen University, the top-ranked university in the Fujian Province. Its campus, located within minutes of a wide sandy beach, is well known for its beauty and widely regarded as one of the most scenic in China. The program location and accommodation will be on this campus.

Xiamen University: Pursue Excellence, Strive for Perfection

Over the past 90 years, Xiamen University has accumulated a vast amount of experience in offering academic programs of the highest standards. Equipped with a strong team of faculty and staff and consistently ranked among the Top 20 in the nation, Xiamen University has become a first-class comprehensive university in China with extensive international influence.

Program Highlights

Participants will:

- Visit 8 cities: Beijing, Shanghai, Zhouzhuang (or Hangzhou), Xiamen,
 Nanjing Co., Fuzhou, Quanzhou, Kinmen (Taiwan).
- Explore cultural sites and ancient and modern wonders, such as The Great Wall, the Forbidden City, Tian'anmen Square, Temple of Heaven,
 Olympic Stadiums, Buddhist temples, and Chinese Civil War battle sites.
- Receive lectures on Chinese culture and language
- Visit local institutions like local media, schools, governmental bodies, a sea harbor, and a world-class panda research center.
- Get to know Chinese students. Be a guest to a local home dinner.
- Take classes in Kung Fu, paper cutting, calligraphy, and Chinese.

China Program Information

Students are required for register at least 6 credit hours. If you are a transient student, check for equivalent course numbers at your institution.

All courses will integrate cultural information from excursions and lectures in the context of the Study Abroad – China program. Students will visit local media, schools, institutions, and witness many events and have close contact with local students and citizens to enhance their study abroad experience. In addition to the registered courses, all students will have classes on Chinese language and culture taught by Xiamen University faculty.

Course Titles

PHYS 1020: Modern Science and Technology - Dr. K.C. Chan

MACO 2001: Survey of Media and Society - Dr. Judith Rosenbaum

MACO 3320: Public Opinion and Propaganda - Dr. Judith Rosenbaum

MACO 2000: Basic News Writing and Reporting - Dr. Jianchuan Zhou

MACO 3330: Editorial and Critical Writing - Dr. Jianchuan Zhou

MACO 3331: International Journalism - Dr. Jianchuan Zhou

ENGL 1102: Composition II - Dr. Nneka Osakwe

ENGL 4990 Special Topics - Dr. Nneka Osakwe

For complete course descriptions visit www.asurams.edu/Global Programs or https://sites.google.com/site/asumaco/china

