FINANCIAL AID

2013-2014 Receipt of SNAP Benefits

Your 2013-2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review by the Department of Education in a process called verification. The law states that before you are awarded Federal Student Aid, you will be required to confirm information you and/or your parents reported on your FAFSA. To verify that the information submitted is correct, you will need to complete the following application and provide any additional documentation requested. If there are differences in the data provided, your FAFSA may need to be corrected by Albany State University. You must complete and sign this worksheet and attach any supporting documentation.

Please verify that a member of your household received benefits from the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program or SNAP (formerly known as the Food Stamp Program) sometime during 2011 or 2012. SNAP may be known by another name in some states. For assistance in determining the name used in a state, please call 1-800-4FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

Your household included:

- Yourself
- Your parents (including a stepparent) even if you don't not live with your parents
- Your parents' other children if they will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2013, through June 30, 2014, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2013-2014. Include children who meet either of these standards even if the children do not live with your parents.
- Other people if they now live with your parents and your parents provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2013.

NOTE: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding the receipt of SNAP benefits is inaccurate, we may require documentation from the agency that issues the SNAP benefits in 2011 or 2012.
